Hallelujah (Live at Glastonbury) Lyrics:

I've heard there was a secret chord

That David played and it pleased the Lord

But you don't really care for music, do you?

It goes like this

The fourth, the fifth

The minor fall, now the major lift

The baffled king composing Hallelujah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Your faith was strong but you needed proof

You saw her bathing on the roof

Her beauty and the moonlight overthrew you

She tied you to a kitchen chair

She broke your throne and she cut your hair

And from your lips she drew the Hallelujah

Hallelujah...

Now maybe, maybe there's a God above

As for me, all I ever learned from love

Is how to shoot at someone who outdrew you

But it's not a cry that you hear tonight

No it's not some pilgrim who claims to have seen the light

It's a cold and it's a very broken Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Hallelujah...

Baby, I've been here before

I know this room, and I've walked this floor

You see, I used to live alone before I knew you

And I've seen your flag on the marble arch,

But listen, love is not some kind of victory march

No it's a cold and it's a very lonely Hallelujah

Hallelujah...

There was a time you let me know
What's really going on below
Ah, but now you never show it to me, do you?
I remember, when I moved in you
And the holy dove, she was moving too,
Yes, and every single breath that we drew was Hallelujah
Hallelujah...
I did my best, it wasn't much
I couldn't feel, so I learned to touch
I've told the truth, I did not come all the way to Glastonbury to fool you
And even though
It all went wrong
I'll stand right here before the Lord of Song
With nothing, nothing on my tongue but Hallelujah Hallelujah...
[Spoken : Thanks so much friends]

The first Leonard Cohen song I heard was Suzanne in 1968 or 1969 when I was a delegate to "Anytown" in Arizona in high school. What an amazing song! What a poet, songwriter, and composer. My cousin Eileen in Newfoundland introduced me to a lot of his music and history! Hallelujah is one of my all-time favorites!
