Without information to the contrary we can assume that all is well. Two of the Ctee members are still on their work honeymoons. Another one will be on their genuine marriage one soon.

The other bloke responds proudly, "Yes, that I am!"
The first one says, "So am I!"

"And where about from Ireland might you be?"
The other bloke says, "I'm from Dublin."

The first one responds, "So am I!"
Mother Mary and begora.

"And what street did you live on in Dublin?"
The other bloke says, "A lovely little area it was."

"I lived on McCleary Street in the older central part of town."
Th first one says, "Faith and it's a small world."

"So did I So did I And to what school would you be going?"
The other bloke answers, "Well now, I went to St. Mary's of course."

The first one gets really excited and says, "And so did I!"
"Tell me what year did you graduate?"

The other bloke answers, "Well, now, let's see. I graduated in 1964."
The first one exclaims, "The good Lord must be smiling down upon us! I can hardly believe our good luck and winding up in the same place tonight."

"Can you believe it, I graduated from St. Mary's in 1964 myself!"

About this time, Vicky walks up to the bar, sits down and orders a drink.
Brian, the barman walks over to Vicky, shaking his head and mutters, "It's going to be a long night."

Vicky asks, "Why do you say that, Brian?"
"The Murphy twins are drunk again."
